HOLD YOUR NEXT MEETING OR EVENT AT AN AWARD-WINNING SAN FRANCISCO ARCHITECTURAL LANDMARK Headquartered in the historic Hallidie Building, one of America's first glass-curtain-wall buildings, designed by Willis Polk and completed in 1917, AIA San Francisco (AIASF) is the Bay Area's leading destination for architecture and design. Our state-of-the art facility received LEED-CI Gold certification from the U.S. Green Building Council and provides a comfortable environment for both day and evening events. Centrally located in Downtown San Francisco with easy access to public transportation on both local and regional systems. Built-in audio visual, adjustable lighting, and movable walls accommodate events in a wide variety of configurations for events ranging from 8-195 attendees. AIASF'S Gallery Space is 1,871-square feet, and can facilitate meetings and events of up to 195 attendees. The Gallery offers a flexible open floor plan with movable walls, allowing a multitude of potential seating configurations. The space is easily configured for parties, lectures, classes and workshops, and includes use of our 4 ceiling-mounted digital projectors and the ability to record your programming for future use for a small fee.
