In Italian, Acquolina means "mouthwatering" illustrating what happens when you see a delicious, inviting dish. This phenomenon can only happen when food is made with passion and love. For us, food is a social matter. In turn, Acquolina weds a passion for food with a real respect for the community in which it stands welcoming a mix of locals and visitors, singles and families, welcoming guests of all ages and lifestyles. At Acquolina, we endeavor to create a vibrant and lively atmosphere where our patrons can revel in the experience of an authentic and regional Italian meal. The Tuscan-infused menu is meant to pair with an assortment of wines, with samplings from Italy and California. In the spirit of the Tuscan Trattoria, everything is meant to be authentic the pasta boiler and the pizza oven came direct from Italy, brought here to guarantee a perfect plate of al dente pasta and a perfect slice of thin crust pizza.
