Visit San Francisco's Alonzo King LINES Ballet, a world-renowned trailblazer, contemporary ballet company, education center and artistic hub, celebrating over 35 years of art in motion. We work collaboratively with Corporate teams and business partners to curate experiences unique to company culture and values. Promote problem-solving, innovation and risk-taking in the workplace through the accessible exploration of dance-making. Through a collaborative experience connected to the philosophy of Alonzo King, participants will bend, blend and break ideas as they move together to create new solutions, refine communication and team build through dance. LINES Dance Center can also provide dance, somatics or dance-fitness classes for a team of employees to promote health and wellness via a unique tailor designed master class. In addition to having some high energy fun, employees will find out more about LINES' groundbreaking history, the unique philosophy of Alonzo King and have the chance to experience an exclusive, behind the scenes observation of our esteemed Education Programs or professional company in action!
